

THE HUMORIST.

Mrs. Culshaw—Did you attend those very interesting lectures on Browning Lamb and Hogg? Mrs. Nuritch—Browning lamb and Hogg! Dear me, no. I learnt cooking thoroughly when I was a girl.—Boston Transcript.

Visitor—Is that the mamma doll, is it? And the other, I suppose is the papa doll?

Gwendolyn—Oh, no, you stupid! That is a friend of the mamma doll. The papa doll is away from home.—Puck.

Ja.vey (who is driving, political car raser)—"It is here Jim Rooney's living?"

Boy—"It is. But he's dead."

Ja.vey—"Och, then, tell him we don't want to see him."—I chuck.

"You talked all through my solo," said the musician, a little resentfully.

"Oh, that is all right," said the self sufficient sage. "I wasn't saying anything you would care about hearing."

—Washington Star.

Marketer—How much are strawberries?

Dealer—One dollar a box.

Marketer—Give me some good sour pickles—they are less and taste about the same.—Cleveland Leader.

Senator—Did you find it a difficult task when you made your maiden speech?

Senator—That, replied Senator

McKibbin, was the only thing I had to learn to do.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

Put a Bull Behind the Bars

We call special attention to the hinge joint at each intersection of stay with main bars.

This is the essential of every good wire fence. Unless the stay has a hinge joint the fence cannot receive pressure from contact and right itself. All rigid stay fences have been unsatisfactory and disappointing, as they crush down and, when once down, remain so.

AMERICAN FENCE

Is made with a hinge joint, by which the maximum of elasticity is secured and the fence if properly stretched, remains in place indefinitely. With the hinge joint, no amount of strain on the bars can effect the connection of stay and bar, while the opposite is true of all rigid stay fences.

We Aim To Please.
